Its 12 Wonderful Ingredients Simply Make You Over

There are remedies which act on the liver; remedies which help the nerves; remedies which influence the stomach and intestines. But never before has such a remedy as Flaxolyn been compounded. It acts on the stomach, the large and small intestines, the bladder, the kidneys, the stomach, the liver, the lungs, the nerves. It gives the human machine a general overhauling. You begin after the first few doses to feel like a new person. Flaxolyn is a powder and extremely convenient and easy to take. It can harm nobody. It contains no drugs to form habits, no alcohol to stimulate. Dr. H. H. Lantz, the well known Alsatian physician, spent 20 years developing the Flaxolyn formula. He broke his health down. Was stricken with nervous collapse. His own remedy, Flaxolyn, cured him. This is one of the rare cases where a doctor took his own medicine. There are 30 Flaxolyn powders in a package. Take one powder in a wine glass of water 30 minutes before each meal. Stir slightly until dissolved.

WM. F. SCHAEFER, M.D., Professor of Surgery in the Chicago College of Medicine and Surgery, says: Kindly find enclosed endorsement of the merits of your Flaxolyn. It has been clinically and therapeutically tested and we find it corresponding to your claim. I have taken two ounces of it myself and some of our students of the College of Medicine and Surgery, have also taken it and they say it is the most normal laxative that medical science can compound.

DAREDEVIL AGE DIES AFTER FALL

PARIS, July 11.—Soubieut, Jean Navarre, who was one of the first aces among the French aviators during the war, and who was withdrawn from the service because of his eccentric escapades, fell while flying in the vicinity of Versailles this afternoon, and died soon after in a military hospital.

He was about to land at the air-drome at Villacoublay when, in trying to avoid a collision with other machines, his airplane crashed.

Navarre was officially credited with bringing down twelve enemy airplanes, although the Paris newspapers during the latter part of his service in the French aviation corps credited him with the destruction of nineteen enemy machines. He was awarded several decorations by the French government for his exploits in action against enemy aviators. In April, 1917, after his retirement from the service, he was arrested and placed in a military prison, charged with having run down several policemen of Paris with his automobile.

TEARS DOWN HOUSE TO EVICT TENANTS

PHILADELPHIA, July 11.—When two tenants refused to vacate their homes because they could not find a vacant house in the entire city, Charles W. Haller, a local real estate operator, today sent a corps of workmen to the premises with orders to tear them down over the heads of the unfortunate families.

Haller believes he will make more money by erecting a new service station on the site, despite the fact that hundreds of persons here are offering in vain to pay virtually any price for a house. The only way he can get his tenants out, he said, is to destroy the houses.

SLAYER OF ALLEGED BETRAYER GIVES UP

CUMBERLAND, Md., July 11.—Tony Somma, a merchant at Ridley, who shot and killed Raffaele Ciento because he alleged Ciento betrayed his sixteen-year-old daughter, has surrendered to the authorities. The shooting took place after Somma had refused to settle on Ciento some property in Italy, although he offered to pay him $500 if he would marry the girl. Ciento is said to have attacked Somma with a knife. Somma then shot him.

DOUGHBOYS' DEEDS TELL THEIR STORY, SAYS BAKER

Commenting on the statement by Sir Douglas Haig that the British army won the war, Secretary of War Baker said: "Sir Douglas Haig was talking to his own soldiers and to his own people, just as all of us at home have our own first in our minds. The valor and endurance of the British in this war were great beyond praise. The American soldier made his own demonstration of his worth on European battlefields, and I have no doubt Sir Douglas Haig and all other observers will bear cheerful testimony to his greatness."

ILLNESS OF PRINCE WON'T PREVENT VISIT

LONDON, July 11.—Although the Prince of Wales is somewhat indisposed at present, there is no likelihood that his indisposition will interfere with his proposed visit to Canada, the Canadian press here announced it had been informed. The prince has been especially active lately, and the chill from which he is now suffering is attributed partly to exhaustion. The Duke of Connaught, formerly governor general of Canada, has likewise been ordered by his physicians to take things more easily for the time being.

Even the Dinner Coat Makes Way For a PALM BEACH Suit

ONCE upon a time, a great American author effected a compromise 'twixt comfort and convention by appearing at table in a white serge Dinner Coat. But that was before the advent of Genuine PALM BEACH.

Nowadays, convention has no bone to pick with comfort, for a PALM BEACH Suit is a national form of dress that is on intimate terms with all occasions.

As to its workmanship and individuality—well, it's simply a question of choosing your Clothier. If he prides himself on good tailoring, you have naught to fear—

For Palm Beach, though worn for comfort, is universally fashioned for style.

"Pike's Peak or Bust," was the half-comic, half-tragic legend carried by the prairie schooners crossing the great plains back in '49. Pike's Peak, then, meant gold. If you didn't find it, you "went bust."

Pike's Peak is there today—more than 14,000 feet altitude—and other equally impressive peaks of the Rockies—Longs and Grays, Buckskin and Ouray, Spanish and Cañon.

And great ranges of mountains, too—Saguache, Sangre de Cristo, San Juan, Uncompaghe, Wasatch, Uintah, Oquirrh—noted in song and story. But now you go there in luxurious trains, on rails of steel.

You go for the gold of renewed health, the silver of vacation rest. There is no possibility of failure, no going broke. Everywhere you find a multitude of wilderness outing joys, just around the corner from resort hotels. And, if you search for it, the fabled pot of gold at the end of the rainbow.
